Dear Prayer Partners,

And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full. Matthew 14:20

Vagabonds for Jesus!

This past month found us in Mississippi, Texas, Arizona, California, and New Mexico, just a little bit of driving to ensure we stay busy. We traveled over 4500 mile in January, most of it with both vehicles. If we were in New Zealand this would take us from one end of the country to the other four times; praise God we won't be able to drive this much there!

Blessed to work for Jesus!

As we were going through Texas we stopped in the small town of Van Horn, to spread the gospel. As cars drove by and read the scripture signs we watched their faces. Some looked shocked, (we've never seen it on this wise before), some we could see moving their lips as they read; "and Jesus said, I am the way the truth and the life...."and still others made several passes by, (we will hear thee again of this matter). It was a blessing to hear all the children report how many tracts were given out and excited that more were accepted than rejected. (Acts 8:4)

It never stops to amaze me (Dawn) how the Lord can use our children to correct us. I was convicted when Ezra, our 8 year old, came running to the car after coming out of flying J, to report that he was able to pass out 12+ tracts while Daddy paid for the fuel. Lord, forgive me for getting into the "survival mode" and forget that there are souls all around me. Perhaps I should go into stores planning on soul winning and not only shopping as fast as I can so I can get onto the next task at hand. O' that we could serve Him as we accepted Him, with child like faith.

Taught of Jesus!

"Godliness with contentment is great gain," and to receive the remnant of our Saviour's blessings should be sufficient for us. Would any of us be satisfied with the fragments that were in the baskets? I suspect the day after He fed the five thousand someone ate the fragments for lunch. Are we so busy looking for the whole loaves of bread that we pass by the fragments that Jesus said to not let go to waste? Our homes are filled with blessing from our Lord that we take for granted. From the health of our children, to the bed we lay on; from the heat in our home, to the shoes on our feet; don't miss the blessings that have fallen from the Master's table.

In the battle for souls,
