New Zealand

Dear Praying Saints,

Here, There or in The Air

After leaving California, in February we traveled to Nevada. In Las Vegas we had great meetings in three churches and were adopted by Bible Baptist Church there. I traveled to Massachusetts sans family for more great meetings with great churches. In March we returned to California's mid and north valley for more great meetings with God's people. We also moved into a new house. Wow, isn't God great? Our biggest regret as we travel church to church is that most of the saints we meet, we probably won't see again this side of glory. I Thess. 4:17

I have decided that the southwest wins the diversity contest. They have the most cults out this way. I had never witnessed to a Unification Church missionary (Tucson) before and I had never debated a Christadelphian (Austin) back east. (I know these can be found there.)

Praise Him!

In Selma, CA the Lord allowed me to show Ismael the way of life and he asked the Saviour to make him a new creature. Hallelujah! Rom. 10:13

New Zealand

Many have asked about our plans in NZ. I believe that the Lord is calling us to preach publicly and witness privately until we can see a bible study started in one or more areas and then simply act as a counselor for these budding churches as they grow and become established in their communities. I am praying fervently to this end that the Lord will raise up godly men that will be able to lead these works. Please pray with me. We know that there are literally thousands of communities without a solid witness for Christ. We are also praying that men will be moved to move to the neediest communities to be a witness for Jesus there. We will be looking for opportunities to spread the Gospel in every venue possible that is why big events like the rugby world games will be a big push to get out tracts and witness. I Thess. 5:24

Blessed Beyond Measure

I don't want to sound redundant but we are so appreciative of every church and saint that allow God to use them to bless us as we travel. Recently we have been blessed with many gifts of food, clothing, beautiful quilts for the babies and a new to us trailer, for our remaining deputation time. Praise GOD! (48 sq.ft. more space + power jacks + more storage + stabilizers + a shower + bigger tanks + awning) Did I say, Praise GOD!? p.s. Note the Muslims in the chart to the left.

Because they need Christ in New Zealand,
