Dear Praying Saints,

A Time of Refreshment

July has been a month of refreshment (Acts 27:3.) Beginning with Lori's salvation in Columbus, OH (now that's refreshing) and continuing on home to New York where we've had the opportunity to get to know our home church again. We are so blessed.

Ministry on the Home Front

My oldest four and I have had the opportunity to serve with our church at a local air show, there were 18 professions made. We have gone door knocking with OPBBC twice, one young man named Jeremy was very interested and I hope to get back to visit him again. I preached in our old nursing home ministry. Was able to preach three nights to about 25,000 Mormons at their annual hill cumorah pageant. None of them can claim at the judgement seat that they were never told. We have been able to witness for Jesus at rock concerts in Buffalo, NY, one of Old Path's ongoing ministries. I was used of God along with about 15 other brothers to declare God's righteousness and the wages of sin to the annual Rochester sodomite parade. Here I had everything thrown at me but the kitchen sink. They really hate the Bible, especially the ones that go to church. I Cor. 15:58

We were blessed to be with Charity Bible Baptist in Onieda, NY for a Sunday and then on Wednesday they were very attentive as I was allowed to teach on the eternal security that we have in our Saviour.

Faith is the Victory

I had hoped to report in this issue that we had gone over 50% and were on the home stretch for the field, I cannot do that. As I have prayed for you all, I have wondered is there someone in the churches that we've been to that is having a hard time believing that God can use you to be a funnel for His blessings? I know that I've struggled with it in the past. How can I do this with the little that I have? What we need to do is believe that God can and wants to use us in the battle for His glory and honor. Since being on deputation I have met a pastor that gives $270 a week to faith promise missions (he does not pastor a large church), a missionary that gives $300 a week and God has allowed us to greatly increase our family's giving by 350%. It is not about what we can do, but what God can do through us by faith. I have met many people that struggle with giving by faith, but brethren only by faith can we please Him and accomplish anything. "...Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.."

By faith God will do it,
