Dear Praying Saints,

Time at Home

Our time at home is over we have enjoyed getting reacquainted with our brethren in NY, but alas we must hit the deputation trail to points unknown again. Please pray for our vehicles (the Lord gave us a "new to us" van) and our bodies to continue to hold up as we put them to the test of many more months on the road. We are praying for the Lord to bring our testing to an end by September of next year.

Preaching Hi-lights

The top opportunity to preach to the masses this month was in Washington, D.C. Several of the brothers were sent by the Lord to stand in the gap for the Lebanese and Arab protestors there. We actually had many good witnesses before the parade began. We declared the falsehood of Islam and the truth of the Bible for three hours as the protestor gathered and marched on our capital. Something that no one in Lebanon or Saudi Arabia or Iran or Syria can do on the streets there.

In Carey, OH a group of believers preached for three hours to another group of middle east immigrants, only these one's claimed to be Christians as they sought for a way to get to the street preachers throats. In just a couple of weeks I saw nationalized citizens of this country desire to kill me for Allah and for Mary. Religion is one of the greatest enemies of the gospels! Jas. 4:4

My Hearts Desire

There are many needs in the church of God and out of it. But the greatest need for God's people is to have a desire for the things that God desires. In Proverbs we are told to get wisdom and then in 18:1 to desire it. I submit brethren that the problem with most of us (God's children) is the desire of our hearts. If we would seek to understand the desires of God, we will have wisdom, true wisdom is to love and serve God with our whole heart, soul and strength.

When the Lord said that He wants to give us the desires of our hearts in Ps. 34:7 it was with the stipulation that we delight ourselves in Him. That His law becomes our desire and his will becomes our desire. May we find in each of us the desire for His wisdom.

Thank you to all that pray for us, we can feel your presence before the Lord and thank you to all those that have given sacrificially, you all have treasure in heaven.

In the battle for souls,
